

BOUNDLESS HEART

The Four Immeasurables

by

B. Alan Wallace

Edited by

Zara Houshmand

Snow Lion Publications
Ithaca, New York

Contents

Preface	8
1. Introduction	9
Why Practice?	9
The Foundation of Ethics	16
The Affirmation of Intuitive Wisdom	20
A Meditation on the Jewel in the Lotus: O± MA≤ I PADME HŪ±	23
Questions and Responses: On Ethics and the Sequence of Practice	25
2. Entering Śamatha Practice	31
Beginning the Meditation	33
Relaxation, Stability, and Vividness	34
Questions and Responses: On Breath Awareness	40
The Mastery of Attention: Mindfulness and Introspection	46
Śamatha as a Catalyst for Mental Events	50
Dealing with Problems in Śamatha Practice	52
3. The Path to Śamatha : An Overview	59
The Nine Stages of the Path to Śamatha	59
The Achievement of Śamatha	65
The Prerequisites for Achieving Śamatha	68

Five Obstructions to Progress in Śamatha	73
The Five Factors of Stabilization	76
On the Choice of an Object in Śamatha Practice	78
Questions and Responses: On Achieving Śamatha	80
Beyond Śamatha	84
4. Loving-Kindness	87
Meditation: Loving-Kindness for Oneself	90
Extending the Practice of Loving-Kindness	95
The Advantages of a Lay Person in the Practice of Loving-Kindness	97
Loving-Kindness for One's Enemies	98
The Problem of Righteous Anger	107
Passion and Patience in Response to the Sources of Suffering	109
Finding a Lovable Quality	112
Confusing Attachment with Loving-Kindness	114
Questions and Responses: Enemies and Insight	116
The Attainment of Śamatha in Loving-Kindness	121
5. Compassion	127
Questions and Responses: Catharsis, Logic, and Compassion	133
Compassion for a Suffering Person: Meditation	135
Extending the Meditation on Compassion	137
Intrusiveness in the Practice of Compassion	138
Meditation on Avalokiteśvara, the Embodiment of Compassion	139
6. Empathetic Joy	143
Rejoicing in Others' Happiness	143
Rejoicing in Virtue	145
7. Equanimity	149
Equanimity in Theravāda Buddhism	149
Equanimity in Tibetan Buddhism	151
Questions and Responses: On Distinguishing Attachment from Affection	161

8. The Empowerment of Insight	163
From Insight to an Unmediated Experience of the Ultimate	169
Questions and Responses: The Urgency and Rarity of Spiritual Awakening	178
Notes	185