

Contents

Foreword ix

Acknowledgments xi

About the Author xv

Introduction 1

1 Origin and History of Bön 5

Olmo Lung Ring 5

Tönpa Shenrab Miwo Che, Founder of the Bön Religion 7

Bön Teachings and Their History 10

The Hidden Treasures of Bön 15

2 The Proper Way to Receive the Bön Teachings 19

Pure Attitude of Teacher and Student 19

 Pure Attitude of the Enlightened Ones 20

 The Tantric Way of Purifying One's Views 22

Proper Motivation of Students 23

Qualities Required of Students 24

 Qualities to Avoid 25

 Three Faults of the Container 25

 Nine Faults to Avoid 27

 Qualities to Achieve 34

 The Knowledge of Holding 34

The Knowledge of Understanding	34
The Knowledge of Realization	35
Qualities To Be Cultivated by the Teacher	35

3 Fourfold Practices to Train One's Mind 39

Realizing the Rareness of a Perfect Human Body	40
The Eight Conditions	40
The Ten Perfections	43
Realizing the Nature of the Impermanence of Life	48
Realizing the Sources of Suffering in This Cyclic World	52
Suffering of the Four Faults	53
Suffering of Fear	55
Suffering of Worrying About Being Separated from Loved Ones	56
Suffering of a Lack of Basic Needs	56
Suffering of the Fear of Loss of One's Wealth	58
Understanding the Law of Cause and Result	59
The Nonvirtuous Deeds	60
The Five Poisons	60
The Three Nonvirtuous Deeds of the Body	64
The Four Nonvirtuous Deeds of Speech	65
The Three Nonvirtuous Deeds of the Mind	67
The Ten Virtuous Deeds	69

4 Nine Preliminary Practices 71

Preliminary Practice 1: Generating the Mind of Enlightenment	73
Preliminary Practice 2: Taking Refuge	84
Preliminary Practice 3: Confession	91
Preliminary Practice 4: Mandala Offering	97
Preliminary Practice 5: Connecting with the Teacher	104

Preliminary Practice 6: Prostrations 112
Preliminary Practices 7–9: The Three Essential
Recitations 115

Glossary 121